KOWLOON v. WILTSHIRES.

Before a good crowd on the Club ground, Townsend started for Kowloon facing the sun. A fast game, both goals visited in succession but high kicking prevented combination. Offside against the Wills sent Kowloon away where Moore kicked to touch. Offside against Evelyn relieved, but hands against Holdman set the Kowloon forwards moving and Evelyn, nicely placed, kicked over the top. The Wills got away and Lancaster passed out to Amor, who then Crocker, who cleared. The ball coming to Holdman this player sent in a shot.

Wills came again and Holdman passed to Hen who was offside. Holdman sent Warren away on the right who centred, Relf kicking wide. Kowloon then visited the other end out basing against them relieved, they returned but Evelyn was offside. Amor came down on the left and sent in, but Wheeler cleared. Clemo offside, Wills away and Holdman receiving, forced a corner off Wheeler. Amor took the kick and Warren sent behind. From the goal kick, Townsend sent Taylor away, the latter failing in his final effort by sending behind. Wills took up the running and for a time gave Crocker a warm time. Kowloon eventually cleared, and Clemo sent across and Pascoe, receiving, shot. The ball hitting the upright rebounded into play where Moore cleared. A foul against Relf stopped a dangerous rush, but Wills came again and Amor sent in. Wheeler clearing, Taylor received and passed the ball forward for Townsend, but Green ran out and cleared. Wills then went away and Warren sent across, where Wheeler in attempting to clear sent behind. Amor took the kick and dropped the ball near the goal where a scrimmage took place until offside against Holdman relieved.

Wills came again and Holdman gave Crocker a hard one to stop, the goalie kicking out to touch. A hour of high kicking between the backs, kept the ball in midfield. The Wills got away on the right and Warren shot over the top. Not to be denied the Wills returned and Relf sent in a low shot which brought Crocker to his knees on the goal line. The goalie just managed to push the ball to Millard, who kicked out to clear. Amor took the kick and Wheeler cleared, the ball going out to Taylor, who raced away, but the whistle sounded for half time with a blank sheet.

From the re-start, Holdman went through but Wheeler robbed him when steady himself for his final shot. Wills returned and Relf sent across to the right where hands against the inside man relieved. Kowloon went away and Clemo sent in a shot, which Green caught and pointed up the field. Wills came again and Warren sent in a beauty, which Crocker just managed to clear and throwing out, Lancaster tried a first timer which Crocker cleared. Kowloon went away and Clemo sent in but Green cleared. Amor returned and Moore kicked out. Taylor, receiving from the throw in, shot behind. From the goal kick, Wills forwards went away, but Holdman was pulled up for a foul. Wills pressed and Amor tested Crocker who cleared. Wheeler was hurt and a slight ball was made.

Wills returned and Amor sent behind. Each goal was now visited, the game being very fast. Holdman did some good work and gave Crocker some work to do, but the goalie was playing a great game and kept his goal intact. Townsend received from the throw in, shot through, but was charged off the ball when about to shoot. He recovered, however, and tipped the ball to Taylor, who was unmarked. This player put the ball past Green and gave Kowloon the lead. From the re-start the Wills went away and penned the Kowloon men in their own half, but they could not get past Crocker. Shortly afterwards Evelyn was given offside. Kowloon came again and Taylor sent in a shot that beat Green. The ball, hit the cross-bar and rebounded to Evelyn who headed over the top. From the kick out, Holdman passed out to Amor, who raced away, but was brought down by Millard in the penalty area when about to shoot. Amor took the kick and sent the ball out of Crocker's reach which brought the scores level. This did not meet with the approval of the Kowloon supporters, but it should be remembered that Amor was well in, with only the goalkeeper in front of him and a goal seemed certain, when he was brought down. Millard had had luck in bringing about this foul. When Amor beat him in the field he recovered and went after Amor but, the latter standing himself, Millard fell on to him and tripped from behind.

A great struggle now took place, each team trying to get the lead and each side forcing corners. Both goalies were doing some good work and Crocker was called upon to save several shots from all the forwards, while Lancaster, the Wills centre half, brought the goalie to his knees with a hot shot and Crocker just pushed round the post as two of the Wills forwards dashed. The corner was cleared by Wheeler but hands against Weyman raised the hopes of the Wiltshire supporters. Lancaster took the kick and missed by inches. Kowloon visited the other end and Green running out, pointed to midfield. Clemo returned and forced a corner, the resulting kick going behind. Play was now in mid-field and the whistle, sounding for time, found both teams equal, the result being a draw, namely, one all.

Mr. Birkenhead had charge of the game.

It was a very fast game throughout. For Kowloon, Crocker played a great game and saved his side. The backs were not safe, their clearances at times being very weak. Weyman, at centre half, worked hard and kept Holdman covered. Millard and White also put in some good work against speedy wing men. Townsend was the best forward, but Lancaster kept close to him. Clemo and Taylor put in good work on the wings. For the Wills, Green was safe in goal but did not have as much to do as Crocker. The Wills cleared usually a dangerous rush and Moore did some big kicking. Farmer worked very hard while Lancaster kept Townsend well under and occasionally tested the goalie. The forwards were good. Holdman at centre made some neat runs and also kept his speedy wingers well supplied. Amor and Warren centred well.

"TAMAR" v. "AMBROSE."

Playing on the Navy "A" ground the Ambrose were without Sargent and Hannon, but their two stars, and Graydon played havoc with the rest of the Ambrose men. The Tamar were the winners by 3 goals to 1.

Mr. Clements was in charge of the game.

R.G.A. v. POLICE.

The R.G.A. were at home on the Military ground at Sookunpo. The Police kicked off R.G.A. only finding ten men. The R.G.A. visited the Police goal and for a time play was in their half. After 15 minutes play McHugh came out and completed the R.G.A. eleven. Play was considerably slow during the first half and nothing of interest could be recorded, the whistle sounding for no reason.

From the re-start, R.G.A. went away but the Police cleared and visiting the other end forced a corner off Frampton. The kick was well taken and Robinson headed past Holloway and gave the Police the lead.

This reverse put life into the R.G.A. who visited the Police goal. A corner resulting, Golding took the kick and sent the ball well in the goal mouth, where McHugh headed in, bringing the scores level. From the re-start, Howard received and beating half back and backer sent in a hard shot at 15 yards' range, which hit the upright, and the ball rebounded to Donovan, who sent in wide. The R.G.A. returned and forced a corner which was cleared. Not to be denied the R.G.A. came again. Donovan passed out to McHugh who returned to centre, where Watson sent. The ball, beat the back and sent in a ground shot which gave the goalie no chance.

The R.G.A. leading, the Police tried hard to equalize, but the backs cleared and McHugh going away on the left centred from near the corner flag, the ball dropping in the goal mouth where a scrimmage took place, with the result, that Watson sent, was hurt and had to leave the field.

The Police cleared, and the R.G.A. playing one short, held the Police for a while, but eventually they broke away and forced a corner, which the R.G.A. cleared. The whistle sounded with the R.G.A. winners by the odd goal in three.

Mr. Jones was the referee.

The play in the first half was slow, but each team improved in the latter half.

Henwood appeared the best player on the field. Watson sent, played well, and his goal was the result of good individual play. McHugh played his usual game and his centres were well timed.

S.C.A. v. "CARLISLE."

A hard and fast game on the old Military ground at Happy Valley before an enormous Chinese crowd.

The S.C.A. kicked off and went away on the left where Ashford cleared, the ball being kept well in the air and the backs in both sides trying to kick the highest. Play was spoilt through the crowd encroaching on the field of play and Mr. Holland, the referee, had to stop the game to get the crowd back. The play was very clean throughout and evenly contested, when the result seemed to be a draw, as with only a minute left for play, no goals had been scored. The S.C.A. sent in a long shot and Ashford and goalie both rushed to clear, but missed and the S.C.A. centre dashing up put the ball into an empty goal thereby winning the match half a minute from time.

CLUB RESERVES v. INDIAN RECREATION CLUB.

On the Club ground, the Indians kicked off facing the sun and went away to the Club goal where Gerrard cleared and Purvis sent out to Boyson, who forced a corner off Hyder. Taking the kick, Boyson dropped the ball in front of goal, Hyder clearing. Boyson came again and sent across, Sherry shooting wide. From the kick-out, Dadds passed to May, the latter tipping to Hamilton, who kicked over the top. The Club returned and Purvis tried a long shot which Hyder just deflected, the ball going wide. Boyson took the corner kick and in clearing the back, handed in the penalty area. Hamilton took the kick and scored.

From the re-start the Indians went down on the right and Gerrard relieved.

AMRITSAR SEQUEL.

CENSURE OF MINOR OFFICIALS.

The Punjab controversy has been finally concluded by Sir Wm. Vincent, a member of the Viceroy's Council, laying on the table of the Council a full and lucid statement showing the action taken against officials whose conduct was impugned by the Hunter Committee. The delay was said to be due to the necessity of awaiting a report of the debate in the House of Commons and of consulting the local Governments whose officers were concerned.

Of the police officers whose apathy had failed to prevent the mob from committing murder and arson at Amritsar, the offending superintendent, Ahmed Jan, has been degraded and retired on reduced pension. And Inspector Ashraf Khan has been retired in rank, whilst Sultan Ahmed, the acting Deputy Commissioner at Gujranwala, who refused permission to fire on the mob, has since retired.

Of the European officers concerned, Lt. Col. O'Brien and Messrs. Marden and Jacob, all members of the Punjab Commission, have been informed by the local Government that the Government of India strongly disapproves the particular actions criticized, which are declared to have been injudicious and improper. Messrs. Kitchen and Miles Irving, also members of the Punjab Commission, have been told that their failure to retain control over the military remainder at Amritsar, and to remain in close touch with him through the subsequent events, was regrettable. Mr. Bosworth Smith's request to remain on active duty until 1921 has been refused, and the strong disapproval of the Government of the actions criticized by the Hunter Committee has been conveyed to him. In the case of Mr. Penharrow, who whipped a marriage party, the local Government has been asked if disciplinary action, as opposed to mere censure, cannot be employed.

Of the military officers, in the case of Gen. Dyer no further action is possible, but in the cases of Gen. Campbell, Capt. Duveton, and Col. Mackay, the Commander-in-Chief proposes to convey his strong disapproval of the slandering order, the mutual punishments, and the whipping of schoolboys, which were adversely criticized in the actions of the respective officers. Lieut. Col. Frank Johnson, a Territorial, has since been demobilized, and the military authorities propose no action in the case of Gen. Beynon, Maj. Carberry, and Lieut. Dodkins, considering the extreme difficulty of their position owing to the absence of precedent for exploring the Royal Air Force under such circumstances. The military authorities think no blame attaches in forty cases.

The Government has given assistance to the dependants of the needy persons killed at the Jallianwala Bagh, the largest amount being £50, and the smallest £20. The case of the Amritsar inhabitants has been met by private generosity, while any person outside the city has been relieved by a grant of £1,200 placed at the disposal of the local authorities by the Viceroy. The total amount paid as relief in the case of European sufferers was £48,000. Compensation amounting to £10,000 has so far been paid to the owners of articles impressed in the Punjab during the disturbances.

Hyder left the field through injury. The Club got away and Hamilton shot straight at the goalie who cleared. The Club came again but Boyson handled close in Hyder now returned and the Indians went away, Gerrard kicking in time and sent in several shots but Wills cleared. May gaining possession passed to Hamilton, who sent in, the back heading behind. The Indians then paid a flying visit to the Club goal where offside relieved. Gerrard sent May away, who passed to Hamilton; the latter sent a hot shot which the goalie pushed out, and Purvis tried a first timer but sent over the top.

The Club were now pressing and May receiving went in and beat the goalie with a fast shot.

Shortly afterwards the same player receiving from Purvis, beat Hyder and sent the ball out of the goalie's reach into the right hand corner of the goal. The whistle sounded for time, leaving the Club winners by 4 goals to nil. Mr. Wells was the Referee.

R.G.A. RESERVES v. ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE.

The R.G.A. Reserves played a good game on the Valley where the College team were beaten by 3 goals to one.

The R.G.A. defence were too good for the St. Joseph's light forwards and Hyndman could not get within shooting range. St. Joseph's scored first through the ball going in off Skeeb, the R.G.A. back, but Best soon equalized. Two more goals were added one by Veele and the other by Best leaving the R.G.A. winners as above.

Mr. Robson was in charge of the game.

S.C.A. RESERVES v. "CARLISLE."

These Clubs turned out on the Navy "A" ground, before the usual S.C.A. supporters. The game was fast and clean throughout, the Navy team winning by 3 goals to two. Mr. Robson was the referee.

HONGKONG LEAGUE MEETING.

A meeting of the Hongkong League will be held at Victoria Barracks, to-morrow, at 5.30 p.m.

Corn Comes Off In One Piece

"Get-It" Leaves Toe As Smooth As the Palm of Your Hand.

There is only one corn remedy in the world that peels corns and calluses off like a banana skin, and that is "Get-It." For those who walk and stand a great deal, for shoppers and dancers, there is immediate relief from corn pains, and a quick end to any corn or callus. "Get-It" is applied in two or three seconds. There is no work, no troublesome plaster, no wrapping, or toes. "Get-It" dries in a second or two. That is all. As easy to do as signing your name. The corn loosens from the true flesh and you peel it right off with your fingers while you wonder at the sight and smile. That is why "Get-It" is the biggest selling corn remedy in the world today. So corn-free at last!

Put 2 drops of "Get-It" on, and smile!

"Get-It" is the guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, the only sure way, costs but a trifle at all chemists and stores. Sold by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, U.S.A.

Obtainable and all Chemists and Stores or MULLER & PARRIS (Asia), Ltd., Prince's Bldgs., Hongkong.

THE TEXTILE INDUSTRY.

Local trade in Manchester goods has been very slack for weeks and it is likely to remain so until the troubles of Kwangtung are to some extent cleared up. It is against human nature to buy goods that may be stolen by "soldiers"—or, as they would say, "looted," although we doubt their claim to use the word. For the so-called "soldiers" are but robbers who are probably compelled by the old economic laws to resort to robbery in order to live. We cannot altogether blame them; it is the officials of China who must be blamed. The result of their parasitic efforts is that trade in South China has been for weeks almost suspended, and although we are convinced that the position will improve in the near future, we can sympathize with merchants engaged in the piece-goods trade in their impatience with the office-seekers who scourge the traders of Kwangtung. Recent events make us hopeful that there will be a period of peace in Canton, but experience warns us against undue optimism. All that can be said about South China is applicable, perhaps in a rather less degree, to other parts of the country. In the meantime there are many hundreds of thousands of pounds worth of piece-goods in Hongkong and Shanghai that cannot be sold at reasonable prices.

While this is so, developments are taking place which may perhaps cause some uneasiness in Lancashire textile circles. In Shanghai they have commenced to manufacture such goods, and the mills have absorbed a great deal of machinery. It is noticeable also that, during the first six or seven months of this year, France has purchased a great deal of textile machinery from Great Britain; so that it is clear that efforts are being made in France to re-establish the trade in textiles. Nearly one-half the value of all the textile machinery exported from Great Britain was sent to France. During the nine years before the outbreak of the war Germany was Britain's best customer for such machinery, but for many reasons, including the difficulties of exchange, the United States and other countries have secured the orders that in pre-war days, almost automatically went to Great Britain. Recently some figures have been published which show that India is taking in a great deal of machinery for textiles, and this only confirms the idea that India is slowly but surely becoming a manufacturing country. Thus, in the year 1919, India paid nearly two and a half million pounds sterling for machinery for textiles, most of which was built in Lancashire. In connection with the running of such machinery a great many other articles of equipment are needed, and no doubt Lancashire received, actually, more than three million pounds from India for the goods sent out in order to enable India to make textiles. Narrow-minded men might argue that in the end this must be bad for Lancashire, because Lancashire, herself, is so dependent upon the textile trade. But a moment's reflection will make such men realize that the industrial revolution of India and China is inevitable. During the transformation of Japan into a manufacturing nation that country was an extremely good customer of Great Britain, and an industrial revolution in China is certain to greatly increase trade with Great Britain.

An article recently contributed by a certain Dr. STRAWS to a German periodical is of interest in this connection. The writer says that the last vestige of the old determined opposition to Western ideas in China disappeared during the war. Dr. STRAWS then goes on to point out that during the nine months just before he wrote his article, the Japanese had floated seventy-five companies for industrial undertakings in Manchuria alone. The total capital of them was eighty million yen. The South Manchurian Railway, which is wholly a Japanese undertaking, has greatly increased its capital, and there is a great programme of development in South Manchuria for the next ten years. He says that both in China and in Japan the cotton industry has made extraordinary progress during the war. In connection with cotton cultivation, it is noticeable that he does not favour the system of rotation of crops in China and he says that there would be a great increase in the production of the crop if the peasants could be persuaded to grow cotton alone instead of alternating wheat, cotton, and oil-yielding fruits. That is a matter upon which expert advice is available and can be almost easily settled. But it is worth noting that China now possesses fifty-seven cotton mills with more than a million and a half spindles. More than half as much textile machinery as is already installed is on order. There are the facts, and in the face of them we may say that the industrial revolution in China has commenced. We only hope that political affairs will settle sufficiently to give the industrialists a fair chance.

The Post Office announces that the Christmas Parcel Mail for the United Kingdom will be closed at the General Post Office at noon on Thursday next. It is due to reach London on December 23rd.

The Gazette contains regulations as to the occasions when orders, miniature decorations and medals are to be worn with evening dress.

The aggregate upset price asked for Kowloon Lots 6 and 7 is $150,000, the area being 1,004,400 square feet. The annual rent of the former (containing about 374,000 square feet) is $3,224; and of the latter (about 630,000 square feet), $5,424.

There is to be a social gathering at the Helena May Institute on Friday next at 4 p.m. to welcome the new Bishop. No invitations are being sent for this, but it is hoped that all who can will come and meet him. His Excellency the Governor has intimated his intention of being present. The Bishop will be enthroned at 5.30 on the same day in St. John's Cathedral.

A good many hundred dollars' worth of crackers must have been fired off in Hongkong on Friday and Saturday to express the joy and satisfaction of the Chinese residents over the triumph of the "Canton" for the Cantonese party in their struggle against control by military mandarins from Kwangsi. The people who sought refuge in Hongkong are now returning to Canton in crowds.

Yesterday the British warships as well as the few Japanese vessels in port were dressed in honour of the birthday of His Majesty the Emperor of Japan. The British Naval authorities fired a salute at noon from the Tamar and the Carlisle, and a salute was also fired from the U.S.S. Helena. The acting Japanese Consul-General in Hongkong (Mr. G. Ohmori) held an "at home" at his residence at Macdonald Road which was largely attended by the members of the Japanese community.

The Budget of the Straits Settlements for 1921 provides for a total expenditure of $31,653,836, a very considerable increase on the budget of former years. Of this, however, no less than ten millions odd is put down for public works, two and a half for Post Office, nearly five for miscellaneous services, nearly seven for military expenditure and over two millions in each case for Marine and Police Departments. Final Supply for this year also provides for an excess of over twenty-one millions, the main item being nineteen millions under "miscellaneous," a sufficiently wide heading, remarks the Singapore Free Press.

FAR EASTERN CABLE NEWS.

RE-UNION OF NORTH AND SOUTH.

PEKING PRESIDENTIAL MANDATE.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

PEKING, October 31st.

Following the cancellation of independence by the Canton Military Government, the Peking Cabinet, yesterday, approved of the issue of a mandate promulgating the re-union of the North and South which is now established and ordering the Ministry of the Interior to co-operate with the provincial authorities in the election of a new Parliament based on the old election laws.

A Presidential mandate was duly issued last night in which the President says that he sees the dawn of better days for China.

The vernacular press approve the bold step taken by the President in abandoning futile peace negotiations and simply announcing that peace exists. The fact that no concessions have been made to the revolting provinces indicates that the Government feels itself in a strong position.

PROSPECTS OF COMMUNICATIONS SCHEME.

Provided that the Government obtain generous financing it should make good the communication scheme.

TO DEAL WITH RUSSIAN CASES.

The Cabinet has, also, approved of the creation of special judicial functions in the three Eastern provinces to deal with Russian cases.

Dr. Tuffier, the well-known Paris Surgeon, declares that the dead can be brought back to life. He says:—"Injections of adrenalin in the cardiac cavity may restore life to a heart already dead. The heart may also be kept beating artificially for a certain length of time by means of massage or certain chemical excitants." Dr. Tuffier also believes in the possibilities of saving lives by artificial heart stimulation just as is now practised by artificial breathing.

IMPRESSIVE SCENES IN LONDON.

LATEST CABLES.

(THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.)

MINERS' BALLOT.

THE ELEVENTH HOUR HITCH.

LONDON, October 29th.

An eleventh hour hitch has occurred in the coal settlement of which both sides take a serious view. It is ascribed to be due to a section of the miners' Executive springing a fresh demand by which the miners, if the output exceeds the estimate, should not give a guarantee. There will not be a new wage demand before the establishment of the National Wages Board. This is a departure from the peace conditions which is overshadowed by an early demand for a fresh advance in addition to an immediate two-shillings increase, which some quarters regard as indicating that the miners intend to prepare for a fresh strike a few weeks hence. Consequently, it is stated that the Government is of opinion that there will be no settlement and insists upon a final settlement now.

Mr. Barnes last night declared that South Wales men were responsible for the present hitch.

The Duke of Northumberland, yesterday, declared that the average miner is ignorant of the forces behind the strike. The forces were known to have the closest connection with Russian Bolshevism, but the men who engineered the strike took fright when it came to a point. But the miner, who was ignorant of it, went on. He said higher wages were not the real object of the strike promoters.

OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

LONDON, October 29th.

It is officially announced that the coal settlement terms have been agreed upon and will be submitted to a ballot of the miners.

TERMS OF SETTLEMENT.

LONDON, October 29th.

The terms of the coal settlement provide that the Coal-owners' Association and the Miners' Federation undertake to co-operate to their utmost to obtain increased output for which purpose district committees and national committees will be established. Both Associations will immediately prepare a scheme for submission to the Government not later than March 31st next for the regulation of wages, having regard to profits.

Pending the preparations of the scheme, wages will be regulated on the following basis: an immediate advance of a maximum 2/- per shift, which advance will be automatically adjusted from January 1st next, in accordance with the output of the five weeks, ending December 18th, and similarly adjusted from January 31st and thereafter every month on the output of the preceding month. The advance will be adjusted on the basis of the weekly average of the proceeds from the export of coal, the amount of the export coal being assumed to be in excess over the rate of production of 210 million tons annually.

TO MAKE MINERS AND OWNERS JOINTLY RESPONSIBLE.

LATER.

With a view to making the miners and mine-owners equally responsible for increase of output, the settlement provides that if the financial return from the increased output fails to reach a level justifying a two-shillings increase in wages not only shall this increase be proportionately reduced but the amount of the profit now allowed to the mine-owners by law shall also be proportionately reduced.

FIXED FOR TO-MORROW.

LONDON, October 29th.

The miners' ballot is fixed for November 8th. If the ballot is favourable work will probably be resumed on November 8th.

THREE MAIN POINTS.

LONDON, October 29th.

(11.15 p.m.)

Reuter's Lobby correspondent authoritatively learns that the coal agreement establishes three main points, namely, the adoption of the principle of the relation between wages and prices, or production, also that the adjustment of wages between now and March 31st next is automatic, thereby practically eliminating the risk of stoppage. It has also established the much-desired co-operation between owners and miners.

WORKERS' LEADERS SUPPORT SETTLEMENT.

LONDON, October 29th.

(3.5 a.m.)

A number of Trade Unionist leaders, the railwaymen's leader, Mr. J. H. Thomas, Mr. J. P. Clynes, the transport workers' leader, Mr. Gosling, and others publicly support the settlement, and declare that it is a good peace and express the hope that the ballot will confirm it. It is believed to be a fact that the Executive is making a definite recommendation to the miners to accept the terms. This will ensure a satisfactory ballot, but the miners' leader Mr. Martineau stated as a warning last night, "The whole thing is not yet over. We are only just beginning now that the terms are going before the men."

Meanwhile, the urgency of the earliest resumption is emphasised by the fact that over 310,000,000 are directly unemployed through the strike and 250,000 are on short-time.

EXPERTS' OPINION.

LONDON, October 29th.

(3.5 a.m.)

Although the full terms of the coal settlement are complicated, experts point out that three main principles underlie the agreement which both sides had in mind and honourable. Firstly, that increased wages shall be dependent on increased production; secondly, that during the period before a permanent scheme for the regulation of wages is settled, the industry will be freed from fresh claims; and thirdly, that owners and miners shall co-operate wholeheartedly to secure the best results in the interests of the nation.

OUTLOOK IN COAL-FIELDS.

Lord Milner, moving the Emergency Bill in the House of Lords, remarked that they were by no means out of the wood as far as the present crisis was concerned. On the other hand, a prominent Labour leader predicts ten years' peace in the coal-fields.

PROSPECTS IN WALES.

LONDON, October 29th.

(5 a.m.)

The first reports from the coal-fields show that the ballot prospects are favourable, except in South Wales where the power of the extremists has been steadily increasing. The miners' leaders, doubtless, have a great task before them in carrying the proposals in Wales.

A Cardiff correspondent declares that nobody will be surprised if there is a heavy vote against the terms.

ATTITUDE OF RAILWAYMEN.

LONDON, October 29th.

(6.25 p.m.)

The prospects of the miners' settlement being accepted appear favourable everywhere, except in South Wales. Comfortable, even large, majorities are anticipated practically in all coal-fields, but no secret is made in South Wales that too many conditions are attached to the granting of the two-shillings increase. In anticipation of the acceptance of the terms, arrangements are being made to resume work as speedily as possible. The settlement was reported to the Delegated meeting of the Railwaymen's Union at the conclusion of which it was announced that the meeting had approved of the settlement and decided not to take further action, pending the result of the ballot.

NEW SPIRIT OF CO-OPERATION.

LONDON, October 30th.

(2.30 p.m.)

The most hopeful feature of the coal settlement, as regards the future of the industry, is the great opportunity it affords for establishing a new spirit of co-operation. For the past 5 or 6 years owners and miners have kept apart to the detriment of output. Now both have loyally undertaken to work together for a common purpose, namely, developing the productivity of industry, and most important results are officially expected from this co-operation.

SINN FEIN OUTRAGE.

SURPRISING DISCOVERY IN SCOTLAND.

LONDON, October 29th.

A remarkable affair is reported from Scotland. The police at 2 o'clock in the morning, in a dense fog, surprised a body of men drilling near Rathwell. Shots were fired. One policeman was seriously injured. The men dispersed. Some arrests were made.

SENSATION IN BOTHWELL.

LONDON, October 29th.

The outrage at Bothwell has caused a great local sensation. It appears that the constable, who was seriously wounded, was shot twice and then brutally kicked while he was lying on the ground. The police have secured proof that it was a Sinn Fein outrage. It seems that two policemen unwittingly interrupted a Sinn Fein raid for arms upon the drill hall of the Scottish Rifles.

FURTHER DETAILS.

LATER.

Further details show that two policemen surprised about a score of men, armed with bayonets and pistols, and asked them what they were doing, whereupon a man ordered the police "Hands Up, which they refused, when shots were fired, wounding one policeman. The men were then dispersed. The outrage is locally attributed to the Sinn Fein movement.

THE LATE MR. MACSWINEY.

IMPRESSIVE SCENES AT ST. GEORGE'S CATHEDRAL.

LONDON, October 29th.

The removal of Mr. MacSwiney's remains to-night from Brixton prison to St. George's Cathedral, Southwark, where it is lying in state, was marked by impressive scenes. The motor hearse bearing the body was met at the prison doors by representatives of the Dublin Irish and the Irish Corporation. The sightseers maintained a reverential attitude. A great crowd awaited the cortege outside the Cathedral and lodged on the catwalks. After the service thousands streamed past the coffin and took a last look at the face which was only covered by a glass panel.

REMAINS TO BE TAKEN TO CORK.

LATER.

The Government have forbidden the landing of Mr. MacSwiney's remains in Dublin. They are providing a special steamer to convey the remains to Cork.

REASON FOR GOVERNMENT'S DECISION.

LATER.

The Government's prohibition regarding the landing of Mr. MacSwiney's remains in Dublin is due to the risk of political demonstrations which may possibly result in the loss of innocent lives. The Government will not allow a landing except at Cork.

GOVERNMENT PRECAUTIONS IN CORK.

LONDON, October 29th.

Thousands of people watched the arrival of Mr. MacSwiney's remains at Cork where the burial takes place on Sunday, after lying in state to-morrow. The authorities have notified the Deputy Lord Mayor and the Bishop of Cork that military display will not be permitted at the funeral nor will drilling, uniforms and Volunteer badges be allowed.

TUSSELE WITH POLICE IN FUNERAL VAN.

LONDON, October 29th.

The remains of Mr. MacSwiney were landed at Queenstown this afternoon and were received by the Urban Council and a crowd of many thousands. Business was completely suspended. Strong indignation was expressed regarding the action of the Government in diverting the body to Queenstown, instead of allowing it to proceed to Dublin.

As expected, the change of plans led to dramatic scenes at Holyhead in the early hours of the morning. The funeral train was met by a strong body of Police, the Black-and-Tan, and the military. To the last moment the plan was to convey the coffin to Dublin where most elaborate arrangements were made for the reception of the cortege. The alteration was not suspected, until an Irish party aboard the train observed that it was not proceeding to the usual place of destination. On arrival the Irishmen had a lengthy and vehement altercation with the railway authorities, and subsequently refused to allow the removal of the coffin. The Police were called in and were obliged to use violence in the funeral van, ejecting a man and two ladies, one of whom was Miss MacSwiney.

The body was subsequently removed to a steamer which conveyed a large armed escort, members of the Irish party declining to accompany. As the vessel steamed out, members of the party were seen on their knees in prayer, led by Father Dominic, who chanted the De Profundis.

GREEK REGENT.

ELECTION OF ADMIRAL CUNDOURIS.

LONDON, October 29th.

The Times' Athens correspondent says that the Chamber of Deputies has elected Admiral Cundouris, a former member of the Salonika Provisional Government, regent by 137 votes to 3, after which the Chamber was dissolved.

WILL PRINCE PAUL ACCEPT CROWN?

LONDON, October 30th.

The situation as regards the throne of Greece is full of uncertainty. The Crown has been conditionally offered to Prince Paul, but so far there are no signs whether it will be accepted. Rumours are current as from Larissa, where the ex-King Constantine is residing, that the conditions will be refused, and if the prince accepts it would not create much surprise.

FUTURE OF SOUTH AFRICA.

GENERAL SMUTS' NOTABLE SPEECH.

BROOKLYN, October 29th.

The Premier, General Smuts, in a notable speech at the South African Party Congress, threw a considerable light on the present conditions and the future political prospects of the Union. He pointed out that General Hertzog's party, in refusing all offers of reunion with the Ministerial party, had become a Republican party, whose chief aim was to secede from the British Commonwealth.

General Smuts emphasised that South Africa had not been interfered with by England, but had attained a higher status which secession must destroy; apart from separating the white races. He declared that South Africa's great need was the formation of a non-racial party to guide the country through the present critical times.

The country was threatened by the Hertzog party, who were deliberately working for a political revolution, by another smaller party striving for a social and economic revolution, and behind them was the spectre of Bolshevism, which made even Labour leaders nervous, while the natives were being misled and had begun a talk of an African Republic. He said thousands of moderates were waiting to join the new party. General Smuts foreboded general co-operation from the Unionist party.

General Smuts was given a wonderful ovation. Other speakers enthusiastically supported General Smuts' resolution in favour of the formation of a united South African party which was carried unanimously, amid great cheering.

PRINCE ARTHUR OF CONNAUGHT.

DEPARTURE FOR SOUTH AFRICA.

LONDON, October 29th.

Prince Arthur of Connaught, with Princess Alice, has departed for South Africa, to take up the Governor-Generalship.

The Prince of Wales, numerous members of the royal family, court officials, and other prominent men bade farewell at the station and the docks.

BILLS IN PARLIAMENT.

HOME RULE BILL DISCUSSION.

LONDON, October 29th.

The Emergency Bill has passed through all the stages in the House of Lords, and has received the Royal Assent. The Commons, to-day, were occupied with the Home Rule Bill which passed the Committee stage, but a number of important questions were left to the Report stage, including the clause providing that on election candidates must take the oath of allegiance at the opening of the proceedings.

The House was the thinnest possible, necessitating a count, and the discussion continued. Labour members and Independent Liberals did not participate in the discussion after the defeat of their amendment in favour of a single Parliament.

TREASURY BONDS.

SECOND ISSUE TO-DAY.

LONDON, October 29th.

In the House of Commons, Mr. Austen Chamberlain stated that subscriptions to the first issue of Treasury Bonds were disappointing in respect of the large investor but as the subscriptions of the smaller investors were unexpectedly large and steady, he had decided to make a second issue of Treasury Bonds on November 1st, under the same conditions.

TO INDUCE EXCHANGE BOND HOLDERS TO RE-INVEST.

In order to induce holders of £25,000,000 Exchange Bonds, which mature at the end of 1920, to re-invest, they will be permitted to use the expired Bonds as dividend for cash subscriptions to the new Bonds.

MISS SYLVIA PANKHURST IN PRISON.

FOR SPREADING SEDITION IN NAVY.

LONDON, October 29th.

Miss Sylvia Pankhurst has been sentenced to three months' imprisonment in the second division on a charge of attempting to cause sedition in the Navy by publishing an article in a Communist newspaper urging British sailors to form a Red Navy.

FRIENDS OF KOREA.

NEW LEAGUE FORMED.

LONDON, October 29th.

A meeting to establish the League of the Friends of Korea in Great Britain was held in the House of Commons on October 29th.

Sir Robert Newman, M.P., presided and Mr. F. A. McKenzie spoke.

WASHINGTON, October 27th.

The State Department has received a report that two Americans, Mr. Arthur L. Mosley and Mr. Gustave E. Baker, have been killed near Tampico.

OBITUARY.

CHRISTIANIA, October 27th.

The death is announced of Professor Johan Storm, Norway's most prominent linguist.

GERMANY AND PEACE TREATY.

FOREIGN MINISTER REVIEWS SITUATION.

BERLIN, October 30th.

The Foreign Minister, Herr von Simon, reviewing the situation in the Reichstag, said that their adversaries were in two main currents of opinion. One wanted the milk of the cow and the other to slaughter it. He declared that compulsion will be necessary. If the execution of every provision of the Peace Treaty is rigorously insisted upon, he largely dealt with the German objection to destroy high-speed Diesel engines used in submarines, which was demanded by the treaty. He contended that the engines which were valued at 1,500,000,000 marks, were adaptable industrially, despite the excessive consumption of fuel. He welcomed Great Britain's declaration not to seize German property, and mentioned a similar kind of arrangement between other belligerents, including Japan, of an agreement to release the property of the so-called "Small Germans." He said that although the League of Nations was not at present very popular, it would be inadvisable to decline assistance if that were proposed from a quarter other than Germany herself and were not vetoed by France. Germany would, however, claim the right to co-operate in the mandate system. He asserted that it had been proved that Germany was equally capable of colonial power as other nations.

GERMAN AERODROMES NOT TO BE DESTROYED.

LONDON, October 29th.

The Inter-Allied Aviation Commission has consented to waive the destruction, under the Peace Treaty, of nine military aerodromes, four seaplane stations, and three airship harbours in Germany. Fifteen per cent. of privately-owned aviation buildings used for military purposes in the war will be left standing, but with a very few exceptions, airship halls will be pulled down.

It is officially stated that the aerodromes in question will be utilised in international civil aviation and the Allies are taking precautions to prevent the use of the aerodromes by Germans for military purposes.

NEW GERMAN AEROPLANE.

GRIEVANCE AGAINST ALLIED COMMISSION.

BERLIN, October 29th.

The Berliner Tageblatt states that British officers on the Inter-Allied Commission have criticised a new aeroplane belonging to the Aerial Traffic Company on the ground that it was a camouflaged military aeroplane.

GERMAN PROPERTY IN UNITED KINGDOM.

EFFECT OF BRITISH GOVERNMENT'S DECISION.

LONDON, October 29th.

Reuter understands that the view in authoritative British circles regarding the action of the Government in waiving the right to attach German property in the United Kingdom is that there is nothing in it inconsistent with perfect loyalty to the Treaty of Versailles and it in no way implies a revision or modification of the treaty. The only effect of the renunciation will be to free international commerce from restrictions and uncertainties.

EX-ENEMY SHIPS FOR SALE.

LORD INCHCAPE'S OFFER.

LONDON, October 29th.

Lord Inchcape is offering further forty ex-enemy ships to British owners. It is understood that they constitute the residue of the most important ships allotted to Great Britain by the Reparations Commission. Including the above, so far 42 passenger and 115 cargo steamers have been offered for sale.

ALLIES' NOTE TO HUNGARY.

THREAT OF CERTAIN CONSEQUENCES.

PARIS, October 29th.

The Allies have sent a Note to the Hungarian Government demanding the ratification of the Treaty of the Trianon by November 11th threatening "certain consequences" in the event of non-compliance.

ADRIATIC PROBLEM.

DIRECT NEGOTIATIONS TO BEGIN.

ROME, October 29th.

It is semi-officially announced that direct negotiations between Italy and Jugoslavia for the solution of the Adriatic problem will open during the first fortnight of November. Both countries will be represented by the Premiers and other Ministers.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

WHAT IT STANDS FOR.

WASHINGTON, October 28th.

President Wilson, addressing a deputation of Republicans who are in favour of the League of Nations, said that America's greatest sacrifices of the war would be thrown away unless the work which had been begun were completed. President Wilson warned his hearers against supposing that Germany was the sole nation entreating imperialistic schemes, and said that there were others moved by commercial jealousy by the desire of domination. These should be checked and informed that they attempted to do what Germany did. The President added that there was no means of securing the peace, except the League.

CORRESPONDENCE.

AIMS AND RELATIONSHIPS OF FREEMASONRY.

(TO THE EDITOR OF THE "HONGKONG DAILY PRESS.")

SIR.—From communications received from Grand Lodge it has come to my knowledge that His Royal Highness The Duke of Connaught and Strathearn, Grand Master of English Freemasonry, deemed it desirable in view of attacks which have been made upon the Craft, to authorize the Grand Secretary to issue a statement defining the aims and relationships of English Freemasonry.

The Grand Secretary made widely public in England the authorisation of the Most Worshipful the Grand Master plainly to put before the public the status of Freemasonry, and I, as the District Grand Master of the District of Hongkong and South China, will extend it a favour if you will kindly publish this letter covering the enclosure, which is in exact terms the letter sent on by the Grand Secretary.

Thanking you in anticipation, I remain, Sir, your obedient servant.

T. F. HOUGH,
District Grand Master E.C.
Hongkong, November 1st, 1920.

GRAND SECRETARY'S LETTER.

SIR.—As a great deal of misapprehension appears to be entertained in some quarters concerning the aims and relationships of the United Grand Lodge of England, I have been desired by the Grand Master to make the following statement regarding them.

The Grand Lodge of England—of which H.R.H. The Duke of Connaught has been for twenty years Grand Master, in succession to the late King Edward VII, himself Grand Master as Prince of Wales, from 1875 to 1901—has held strictly aloof throughout its history, which dates from 1717, from participation in public or political affairs, either national or international, considering itself precluded from taking any share in discussions on state policy. While thus standing aside from party divisions it has always inculcated patriotism in the citizen, and loyalty in the individual. It had not long been established when it publicly gave assurance of this to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State. The assurance thus given in the reign of George I. is emphasised in a special degree in that of George V. Everyone who comes into Freemasonry is strictly enjoined at the outset not to countenance any act which may have a tendency to subvert the peace and good order of society, to pay a due obedience to the law of any State in which he resides, and never to be remiss in the allegiance due to his Sovereign.

No secret is attaching to these duties, which are of the essence of Masonry as practised under the Jurisdiction of the United Grand Lodge of England, as well as by the Sister Grand Lodges of Ireland, Scotland, Canada, Australia, and New Zealand, and I have reason to believe, of the remainder of the English-speaking world.

Every English Lodge at its consecration is dedicated to God and to His Service; no one can become a Mason until he has declared his faith in the Supreme Being as a consequence, men of every shade of political opinion, and ministers of all religious denominations are members of and officers-bearers in our organization, and Masonry thus provides a platform on which men of all conditions, classes, and creeds can work together for the common welfare. In Masonic Lodges all discussions on topics of a political or theological nature are strictly forbidden.

Because of its determination to preserve the position it has upheld for over two centuries, the Grand Lodge of England never takes part in any Masonic or quasi-Masonic gathering in which the fundamental Ancient Landmarks of Freemasonry which have been indicated above are allowed to be regarded as open questions. Yours faithfully,

P. COLVILLE SMITH,
Grand Secretary,
Freemasons' Hall, London, W.C. 2.

VILNA EPISODE.

SUGGESTION BY LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

Who is the Judge of Good Taste?

A GREAT designer once said: "Good taste comes of wisdom and intuition." What about the design of the average motor car? Is it born of artistic genius or a desire to be different?

It is a question for the motor car buyer to consider. How soon will his car be out of date?

Packard answers the question at once. Packard design is fundamental with the car—not grafted onto it.

Lines may change, and have. But the character of the Packard has not changed for sixteen years.

At the Packard plant the first principle of distinction is quality. Hand buffed, whole-hide leather for upholstery, instead of machine buffed "splints." Double thick material for tops. Nickel-plated fittings, designed and made as jewelry might be. Coach work by craftsmen rather than body building by machines.

In the London Daily Mail recently an Englishman paid a tribute to the Packard method of building high grade cars. He wrote: "It is for America an expensive car, but, compared with the same class of car at home, it is decidedly cheaper."

The fact of the matter is this: If the Twin-Six were built in Europe with European methods it would be higher priced than even the most expensive European car.

MICHAEL GRACE OF BATTLE ABBEY.

STORY OF A CURSE AND A FORTUNE.

The sudden death of Mr. Michael P. Grace, the American millionaire, at the house of his son-in-law, Lord Donoughmore, in Chesterfield-gardens, recalls the course of a life marked by initiative adventures, success, and romance. He was best known in later years as the man who took a long lease of Battle Abbey, to which a curious history attaches.

William the Conqueror built the Abbey over the spot where King Harold fell. A lord abbot ruled there in comfort until the monastery was dissolved by Henry VIII., when Battle Abbey was granted to Sir Anthony Browne, by the service of two knights' fees and a yearly rent of £12.

The last abbot is said to have pronounced a curse that the owners of it should meet death by drowning. During Mr. Michael Grace's tenancy of the abbey, his eldest daughter, Mrs. Herbert Beaumont, was drowned while bathing with her son near Leghorn.

"THE FOUR GRACES."

Mrs. Beaumont was one of a bevy of daughters called "The Four Graces." The second, Elena, became the wife of Lord Donoughmore. The third, Margherita, married John S. Phipps, now of the Pittsburg multi-millionaire, Henry Phipps. The fourth daughter, Gladys, became the wife of Major Raymond Hamilton-Grace, who was killed in the air.

Michael P. Grace had no silver spoon in his mouth at birth. He came into the world at Queenstown seventy-one years ago under a lowly roof. Michael had a brother, William, to whom he was devotedly attached. When William ran away from home and sailed for New York as a boy, the lad who was left languished greatly. William, however, soon made good in the house of Bryce and Co., of Calcutta, in Persia, and he sent home for Michael. Together they founded the firm of Grace Brothers, of Lima, became merchant princes, and were able to oblige the Peruvian Government in the matter of converting £10,000,000 of debt.

POPULAR MAYOR.

Not content with their great South and Central American trade, the indomitable brothers established a branch in New York. William Grace remained there, and became one of the strongest and most popular mayors the city had ever known. Michael came to England to establish another branch, and found a dynasty by force of his character, his wealth, and the charm of his daughters.

He bought a town house in Berkeley-square and a country house in Hertfordshire. He joined the Carlton Club, but did not trouble about politics. He devoted himself, after a long life of exertion, to his daughters, and society, and was pleased to discover, through the agency of a well-wisher, that he had Norman blood in his veins and that his family was originally called Gros. This probably accounted for his wish to abide in Battle Abbey.

Either fearing the curse or tiring of the expenditure involved in maintaining an expensive property, he recently abandoned Battle Abbey and took over Lord Airli's place, Cortachy Castle, for the season of shooting and deer-stalking. Mr. Michael Grace was a keen shot.

"PRICELESS" PONIES.

"Rockabye, a brown pony, by Rockaway, played in the winning team of the Ranelagh War Cup, and many other polo tournaments."

Thus the catalogue of Messrs. Tattersall's Monday sales at Knightsbridge, says a writer in a London journal. Rockabye is led into the ring. "Shall we say 200 guineas?" asks the dulcet voice of the auctioneer. Someone says 200 guineas, and then the bidding jumps by leaps and bounds until Rockabye is knocked down for 660 guineas.

An amazing price for a polo pony, you will say.

Not at all amazing in these days, for the perfect polo pony is not to be bought nowadays. Next year we have to defend the International Cup against the visiting United States team, and we need the finest ponies to enable us to hold our own against Mr. Whitney's team, which in all probability will be as admirably mounted as ever.

But it is not only the immensity of the international contests that has sent up the price of ponies to double and treble what it was before the war. Polo is becoming each season a more popular game, in spite of the fact that it is the most expensive man can play. Its popularity is likely to increase tenfold in the near future, since the Hurlingham Club—which is to the game what the M.C.C. is to cricket—has opened its gates to the general public and allowed them to gaze on the sacred sward and watch fast and high-class games. Hitherto admission to the London polo grounds has been confined to members and their "hatted" friends.

Nowhere else can one see such perfect understanding between man and horse as in a game of polo. The perfect polo pony needs no guidance of rein, no touch of the spur. He follows the ball instinctively, with the intention of a foxhound on a hot scent; he twists and turns, dodges and dashes, with the agility of a cat and the speed of a racehorse. He shows an intelligence that seems almost human.

This is why a good polo pony is now worth a little fortune, for it takes a long time to attain this state of perfection. The "making" of a polo pony is a fascinating pursuit. One may buy a dozen ponies "in the rough," all perfect alike in make and shape, and perhaps only two or three will ever come up to the standard of championship games. Some will never go to ball properly, others will fight for their head. The exceptions will take to the game instinctively, so that their riders will have nothing to do but plan out his tactics and hit the ball.

If you want to see the composition a good pony evokes go to Tattersall's Yard any Monday.

TOWAGE OF NATIVE CRAFT.

The following interesting information appears in the Gazette:
When there are immediate prospects of the weather conditions becoming so bad as to place the native craft in the Harbour in danger of being unable to make shelter on their own account, a red ensign will be hoisted at the Harbour Office indicating that two naval tugs will be available to assist to tow such craft to shelter.

These naval tugs will fly the red ensign at the masthead and will proceed down to the Central and Southern Harbours to the limit of the shipping, and all merchant or private craft, which desire to avail themselves of a tug to shelter should be ready with their ropes to be taken in tow as the tugs return.

All craft will be towed towards Yaumati Refuge.

If the wind is blowing from the eastward, assistance to the shipping at the western end of the Harbour will be rendered first.

Native craft are not to depend on these tugs entirely but should endeavour to make shelter on their own account, as early as possible.

The naval tugs will be used only in emergency during the hours of daylight and on no account will they be used for this work after dark.

No responsibility for damage done during towage will be taken by the Government or by the Naval Authorities.

Towing charges will be made in accordance with the following scale:—
(1)—While Red Signals are hoisted:—
1/20 of Annual Licence Fee.(2)—While Black Signals are hoisted:—
1 of Annual Licence Fee.(3)—While Black Cross is hoisted:—
1 of Annual Licence Fee.Thus, a first class Passenger Boat Licence Fee $12, would have to pay:—
—$0.60; 2—$3; 3—$6; a cargo boat of 500 to 700 piculs, Fee $30, would have to pay:—1—$1.50; 2—$7.50; 3—$15; an "Other Boat," Fee $5, would have to pay:—1—$0.25; 2—$1.25; 3—$2.50.INDIAN CONSTABLE MOBBED.*HAWKERS ATTEMPT RESCUE OF COMRADE.*MAN SENTENCED TO IMPRISONMENT.

On Friday afternoon, considerable commotion prevailed in Gilles Avenue, Kowloon, when an Indian constable was mobbed by a crowd of Chinese, numbering over 700.

The reason for the anger of the crowd was the arrest of a hawker, for crying his wares in a prohibited area. The man managed to elude the constable, who gave chase and caught him after the latter had thrown a brick, hitting the constable on the chest. The hawker, when he saw that there was no chance of escape, called out "save life," "hit the Indian devil."

This resulted in the appearance of hawkers and dock-labourers, who adopted a threatening attitude and tried to effect the man's release. The constable, however, held on to his prisoner, in spite of the belabouring he received. At the arrival of Inspector Ais and a posse of constables, the hawker was charged, on Saturday, with assaulting the constable and causing a riot and was sentenced to one month's hard labour. The Magistrate complimented the constable.

RESTRICTED RUBBER CULTIVATION.We note with a good deal of gratification says the Singapore Free Press, the indications that the policy of restriction of output is to succeed without any interference of Government in the business of rubber planting. The adherence of sterling companies had already exceeded the necessary seventy per cent, and the day for closing October 31st and the replies from other planting areas, under non-British control, generally been so favourable that there is little doubt the policy will be initiated successfully. The only difficulty will be to maintain that policy directly prices improve, for there is certain to be a number of Companies which will give way to temptation and will begin increasing production just as soon as they estimate the market has definitely turned.YOKOHAMA GERMANS AND OLD CLUB.The petition by members of the local German club asking for the release of all the confiscated funds (¥200,000) obtained by the sale of the Club building in order to establish a new Club building has been rejected by the Tokyo Government, all the efforts of the German Chargé d'Affaires in Tokyo in the matter being fruitless.

The Club members will therefore receive from the Japanese authorities ¥100,000 from the proceeds, in accordance with the rules, which provide that ¥10,000 be deducted from the gross proceeds accruing from the sale of the property.

The balance going to the former owners and the club, fifty to be held by the Japanese authorities as a guarantee for payment of the indemnity due to Japan.

Upon the delivery of the money from the Tokyo authorities, a new Club will probably be established at No. 4 Bluff, formerly belonging to C. Illies—Japan Gazette.THE COLONY'S FINANCES.
